NUMB. 2561

THURSDAY AUGUST 25. 1743.

ces our last arrived a Mail from France and another from Flanders.

Milan, Auguſt 14.

WE are inform'd that the Infant Don Philip, with all his Court, are at preſent at Grenoble, where they are to expect the Junction of the French Troops, who, it is ſaid, wait only for their laſt Orders, which were expected every Hour. We begin now to be of Opinion, that Count Traun will ſtill continue to command on this Side, and that Prince Lobkowits coming hither in Quality of our Governor, and Commander in Chief of her Majeſty's Forces, is no more thought of, or, at leaſt, that it is poſtponed. The King of Sardinia has lately ſent to demand a Succour of 5000 Men from the Count de Traun, who, tho' he cannot ſpare him ſo many, is diſpoſed, however, to afford him the utmoſt Aſſiſtance in his Power. We have Advices from Naples which ſay, that Calabria is certainly infected with the Plague; and that Count Mahone, who commands the 6000 Men that are employ'd in guarding the Lines, to prevent any Communication with that Province, had in ſuch preſſing Terms demanded Supplies, that the Court had order'd him 6000 Men, who were on full March to join him.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 24. Count Teſſin is arriv'd here from Copenhagen, and is charg'd, as we are inform'd, with a Negotiation of the laſt Importance. According to repeated Advices from Petersbourg, the French Miniſter, M. Dallion, has written over and over to his Court to ſollicit his Recall; for as he never had any great Credit with the Czarina, ſo of late there is nothing more evident, than that his Preſence at Court tends rather to oppoſe the ſmall Intereſt France has in the North, than does to reſtore it. M. Dallion has even gone ſo far, as to ſuggeſt, that the ſending back the Marquis de la Chetardie will be of very little, if any Uſe; and, at the ſame time, put the French Court to a vaſt Expence. Some penetrating People here, fancy they are able to diſcover the true Deſign of this Miniſter's Writing and Publiſhing theſe Letters; which, according to their Syſtem, is this: That if the new Scheme laid by France to give another Turn to the Affairs of the North, ſhould fail, this Miniſter may have a fair Pretence for retiring, on account of his not having ſuch a Deference paid as is due to the Repreſentative of the Grand Monarque. It is likewiſe thought, that if the grand Affair in Ruſſia, whatever it be, ſhould miſcarry, the Daniſh Invaſion will be laid aſide; and the French will quit all Thoughts of reſtoring their Influence in this Part of the World.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 30. According to the laſt Advices from Vienna, two very important Points are ſettled; the Firſt is the Exchange of the Renunciations of the Queen our Sovereign, to the Duchy of Sileſia, and the County of Glatz; and of the King of Pruſſia, to all Claims whatſoever on any Part of the Auſtrian Dominions; which, with the Delivery of the Archieves of Sileſia to the King of Pruſſia's Commiſſary, puts an End to our Differences with that Court for ever. The other, the Aſſurances received from Petersbourg puts it out of Doubt, that the Czarina will ſhortly ſend 40,000 Men from Courland into Germany, to act with the reſt of the Allies, as may be moſt for her Hungarian Majeſty's Intereſt; which Succour, is ſaid to be wholly owing to his Britannick Majeſty's Influence. The ſame Letters ſay, that the King of Sardinia's Forces have obtained a ſignal Victory over the Spaniards, and that the Inhabitants of the Vallais had repuls'd a great Body of the Enemy's Troops, that had endeavoured to penetrate through their Country into the Duchy of Milan.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, Auguſt 30. 'They write from Strasbourg, of the 21ſt, that four Perſons had been ſeized there, on Suſpicion of ſetting Fire to the Magazine lately burnt there; and that one of them had been convicted, not only of that Action, but alſo of diſperſing certain Seditious Billets in Lorrain, in order to excite an Inſurrection.

'Letters from Metz of the 24th, inform us, That on the 22d there had appeared in the Neighbourhood of that Town a great Detachment of Auſtrian Troops, ſuppoſed to be Col. Mentzel's Huſſars; upon which an Officer was ſent from the City, to enquire who they were, and in whoſe Name they came thither; but that before he could deliver his Meſſage, he was killed by a Muſket Shot. That the ſame Party had put ſeveral of the neighbouring Pariſhes under Contribution, and had ſack'd the Abbies of Lille and St. Benedict, for refuſing to pay Contribution; burning likewiſe ſeveral Houſes in different Villages, and taking, in his Caſtle, the Captain of an Independant Company, who had been formerly made Priſoner in Bavaria with the Partizan La Croix, after having pillag'd his Caſtle. Then taking the Route to Sarre Louis, they had pillaged a Houſe of Canoneſſes, where they committed extravagant Outrages, and then retired towards Luxemburg.

'We learn from Weiſſenburg, that Marſhal Coigny is daily expected at Strasbourg, in order to take upon him the Command in Alſace, and of the Army which remains there for its Defence; and that as ſoon as M. Noailles quits that Province, in order to return to Paris, M. Coigny will aſſume the Command of the whole Army, in which the Count de Saxe is to ſerve, as well as all the Princes of the Blood.'

From the PENNSYLVANIA Gazette.

A Paper being brought into the Synod by Thomas Cookſon, Eſq; in the Name of the Governor, containing Illegal and Seditious Principles of ſome Perſons in Lancaſter County, that go under the Denomination of Preſbyterians; the Synod being utterly againſt any Thing of a Seditious and Diſloyal Tendency, unanimouſly agreed to condemn the ſaid Paper; and, in Teſtimony thereof, drew up the following Addreſs to the Governor.

To the Honourable GEORGE THOMAS, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex on Delaware: The humble Addreſs of the Synod of Philadelphia, conven'd May 25, 1743.

May it pleaſe Your Honour,

WE embrace with Pleaſure every Opportunity of expreſſing our Loyalty to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, George II. and paying our Duty to you, his Repreſentative.

The Bleſſings we enjoy in common with the reſt of his Majeſty's Subjects, will ever engage us zealouſly to ſupport his Crown and Dignity.

Our Religious Privileges, which have been ſo inviolably maintained under his auſpicious Government, will conſtantly excite our ardent Prayers to the King of Kings, that the Crown may long flouriſh upon his Royal Head, and may deſcend, with diſtinguiſhed Luſtre, to his lateſt Poſterity.

And we acknowledge the Indulgence of Heaven, in placing your Honour in the Firſt Chair of Government in this Province, who ſo happily imitate thoſe Virtues of your Royal Maſter, and, upon all Occaſions, manifeſt a tender Concern for the Civil and Religious Liberties of Mankind.

We may with Juſtice ſay, that among his Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, none have been more remarkable for their ſteady Attachment to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and more zealous for maintaining the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his illuſtrious Houſe, than thoſe of our Profeſſion. And it is with unfeigned Grief we hear, that any who ever appeared under the Character of Preſbyterians, ſhould propagate Principles which have a Tendency to promote Diſloyalty and Sedition among the Inhabitants of this Province.

Had the ſuppoſed Authors of thoſe deſtructive Schemes been included in the Bounds of our Synodical Communion, we ſhould eſteem ourſelves indiſpenſably obliged diligently to inquire into this Affair, and inflict the moſt publick Cenſure upon thoſe who ſhould appear involved in this Guilt.

We take Liberty to aſſure your Honour, that we ſhall always inculcate upon our People an unſhaken Loyalty to the Government which Divine Providence has placed over us, and ſhall earneſtly pray, that your Honour may be long continued a great and diffuſive Bleſſing to this Province.

We are your Honour's moſt obedient humble Servants.

By Order, and in the Name of the Synod,

DAVID COWELL, Moderator.

To which Addreſs the Governor was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

Gentlemen,

As a Regard for the Reputation of your Religious Society was my principal Motive for ordering the Seditious Writing to be laid before you, it is a very particular Satisfaction to me, that you have taken this publick Opportunity of expreſſing your Loyalty and ſteady Attachment to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, as well as a juſt Deteſtation of Principles ſo manifeſtly tending, not only to promote Diſloyalty, but to ſubvert all Order and Government. This was in ſome meaſure render'd neceſſary, by the Authors having not long ſince appeared under the Character of Preſbyterians.

I am very ſenſibly obliged by the favourable Sentiments you are pleaſed to entertain of me, and I ſhall always endeavour, by the tendereſt Care of the Civil and Religious Liberties of the People committed to my Government, to merit the Honourable Title I bear of his Majeſty's Repreſentative.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, dated June 15, 1743.

We were much alarm'd here ſome Weeks ago with the Apprehenſions of a War between the Indians and the People of Virginia. A Party of Indians, of the Six Nations going to War againſt the Southern Indians, went through ſome of the Virginia Settlements far to the Weſtward, and being hungry, took ſome of the Peoples Hogs; upon which they took Arms, and purſu'd them, and coming up with them, fired at the Indians; they return'd the Fire, and then taking to their Tomahawks; put the Virginians to flight; ſome were killed on both Sides, and part of the Indians went back to acquaint their Council with what had happened.

As ſoon as our Governor was acquainted with the Affair, he diſpatched Meſſengers to the Six Nations, and the Governor of Virginia, to offer them his Mediation, our Governor having a very good Underſtanding with the Indians, which is cultivated at a large Expence; this Mediation was accepted of, and the Deputies of the Six Nations are very ſoon to meet thoſe of Virginia at a Place appointed in this Province, in order to adjuſt this Affair in an amicable manner.

Yeſterday Morning a Fire broke out amongſt ſome Tobacco in the Cuſtomhouſe Warehouſes, but by timely Aſſiſtance it was happily extinguiſhed.

However, he ſecured one of the Servants in the Houſe, tho' not concern'd in the Robbery, and Yeſterday ſhe was committed to the London Workhouſe by Sir Joſeph Hankey.

The State-Lottery-Office at Charing-Croſs, kept by Mr. Wilſon, directly behind the King on Horſeback, having been ſo remarkable theſe thirteen Years paſt, for the many and valuable Prizes there ſold, ſhar'd, or regiſter'd, renders it needleſs at this time to mention more than two, amongſt others, tranſacted at that Place in the laſt Bridge-Lottery, viz. No. 51047 and 22883, one a Prize of 5000 l. and the other of 10000 l. Which uncommon and continued Succeſs, together with the Care and Fidelity there to be depended on, occaſions an extraordinary Demand at that Office for Tickets, Shares, and Chances of Tickets, ſeveral People chuſing, even tho' they happen to have already purchas'd at other Places, to regiſter them with him. We hear that Schemes, adorn'd with a curious emblematical Frontiſpiece, are given gratis to his Cuſtomers.
